The moral test

Please permit me to refer to the guest opinion of Susanne Severeid on Aug. 29.

In the last section I read "We elect them to listen to us. I ask that they, our elected City Council and mayor, stop for a moment and do just that."

I am urged to add a quote from Hubert Humphrey:

"The moral test of government is how that government treats those who are in the dawn of life, the children; those who are in the twilight of life, the elderly; and those who are in the shadows of life; the sick, the needy, and the handicapped."
